Gruner Veltliner
Talisman,
Hungary

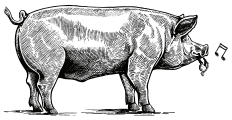
Grüner Veltliner is a late ripening variety that typically produces wines that are pale green in colour and display fruit notes of grapefruits, limes, pears, and sometimes hints of white pepper. They normally possess a steely backbone of acidity which enables the best bottles to age gracefully.

Albarino 'Bernon'
Bodegas Aquitania,
Rias Baixas, Spain

Yellow-green in colour with golden highlights. Fresh, intense aromas of citrus with some minerality. Fruity and fresh on the palate, with a balanced acidity and a persistent finish.

Pecorino Noi Cento,
Roxan

The typical rolling, hilly environment of the area with its unique climate and soils, together with the skills of the grape-growers and modern wine-making processes, are all key factors for attaining the high standards of their wines.



WHITE WINE

		125ml	175ml	500ml Carafe	Bottle

Malbec, Mendel,
- Argentina

Mendel Winery embodies the partnership of one of Argentina's most respected and experienced winemakers, Roberto de la Mota, with an established Argentine family. Together they are dedicated to producing wines of unquestionable superior quality.

Avondale, Jonty's Duck
- Australia

The picturesque 160-hectare farm that is today known as Avondale has been under cultivation for more than 300 years. Early records show that the land was one of the first in the Paarl Valley to be allocated specifically for the production of wine grapes. Avondale is now home to the Grieve Family and 25 farm worker families.

Gardet Brut Tradition
Chigny Les Rose, Champagne

Gardet was established in 1895 by Charles Gardet in Chigny-Les-Roses, in the heart of the Montagne de Reims and was sold to the Prieux family in 2007. The Prieuxs have invested in the business, but wisely retained the features of the style of wine made over the years, only slightly refining it to be a little more forward-drinking with more fruit freshness and balance.

Bolney Bubbly
Sussex, England

Bolney Wine Estate is one of the longest established English vineyards and has been making award-winning English wines at its Sussex estate for over 35 years. The sandstone soils are some of the best in the country, providing the ideal setting to grow vines.
